

Comprehension

Students learn to actively construct meaning when reading both fiction and non-fiction passages.

- Identifying main idea
- Comparing & contrasting
- Identifying supporting facts and details
- Making inferences & drawing conclusions
- Predicting outcomes

Over 140
Activities

- Recognizing fact & opinion
- Recognizing realism versus fantasy
- Identifying cause & effect
- Recognizing sequence of events
- Identifying story elements

Activities Include:

- ▶ matching pictures with story elements
- ▶ answering questions on fiction and non-fiction passages
- ▶ applying concept maps to identify main ideas and details
- ▶ employing flow charts to identify cause and effect
- ▶ hyperlinks to essential vocabulary words